++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Widely frosty overnight after early snow clears.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cloud and snow in the east quickly moving south through the evening, leaving clear intervals behind. Temperatures soon dropping off, with a widespread, locally sharp, frost soon developing. A touch cloudier in the west towards dawn. Minimum temperature -6 deg C (21 deg F).

Monday:
Cold and frosty at first. Remaining dry with occasional sunny spells, the best of these in the east. Still rather cold for most but turning milder in the far west. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Windier again by Tuesday with outbreaks of rain, but also feeling a bit milder. Blustery and showery on Wednesday, though turning colder again. Showers largely easing through Thursday.
